1958 Chronicle

THE 1958 CHRONICLE

INTRODUCTION

Within the pages of this book sleep many memories. These memories need only your attention to come alive and to recall your high school days, your many friends and teachers, hopes and struggles.

The lamp of Learning, which appears on the cover of this book and throughout its pages, has been taken directly from our school crest. Its figure will become familiar to you as you read THE CHRONICLE and we hope that its significance and meaning will remain with you always as a symbol of this chapter in your life, your days at Southington High School.

We, the editors, hope that you will enjoy your 1958 CHRONICLE and its catalog of memories, and that this record of your school days will continue giving you pleasure for many years to come.

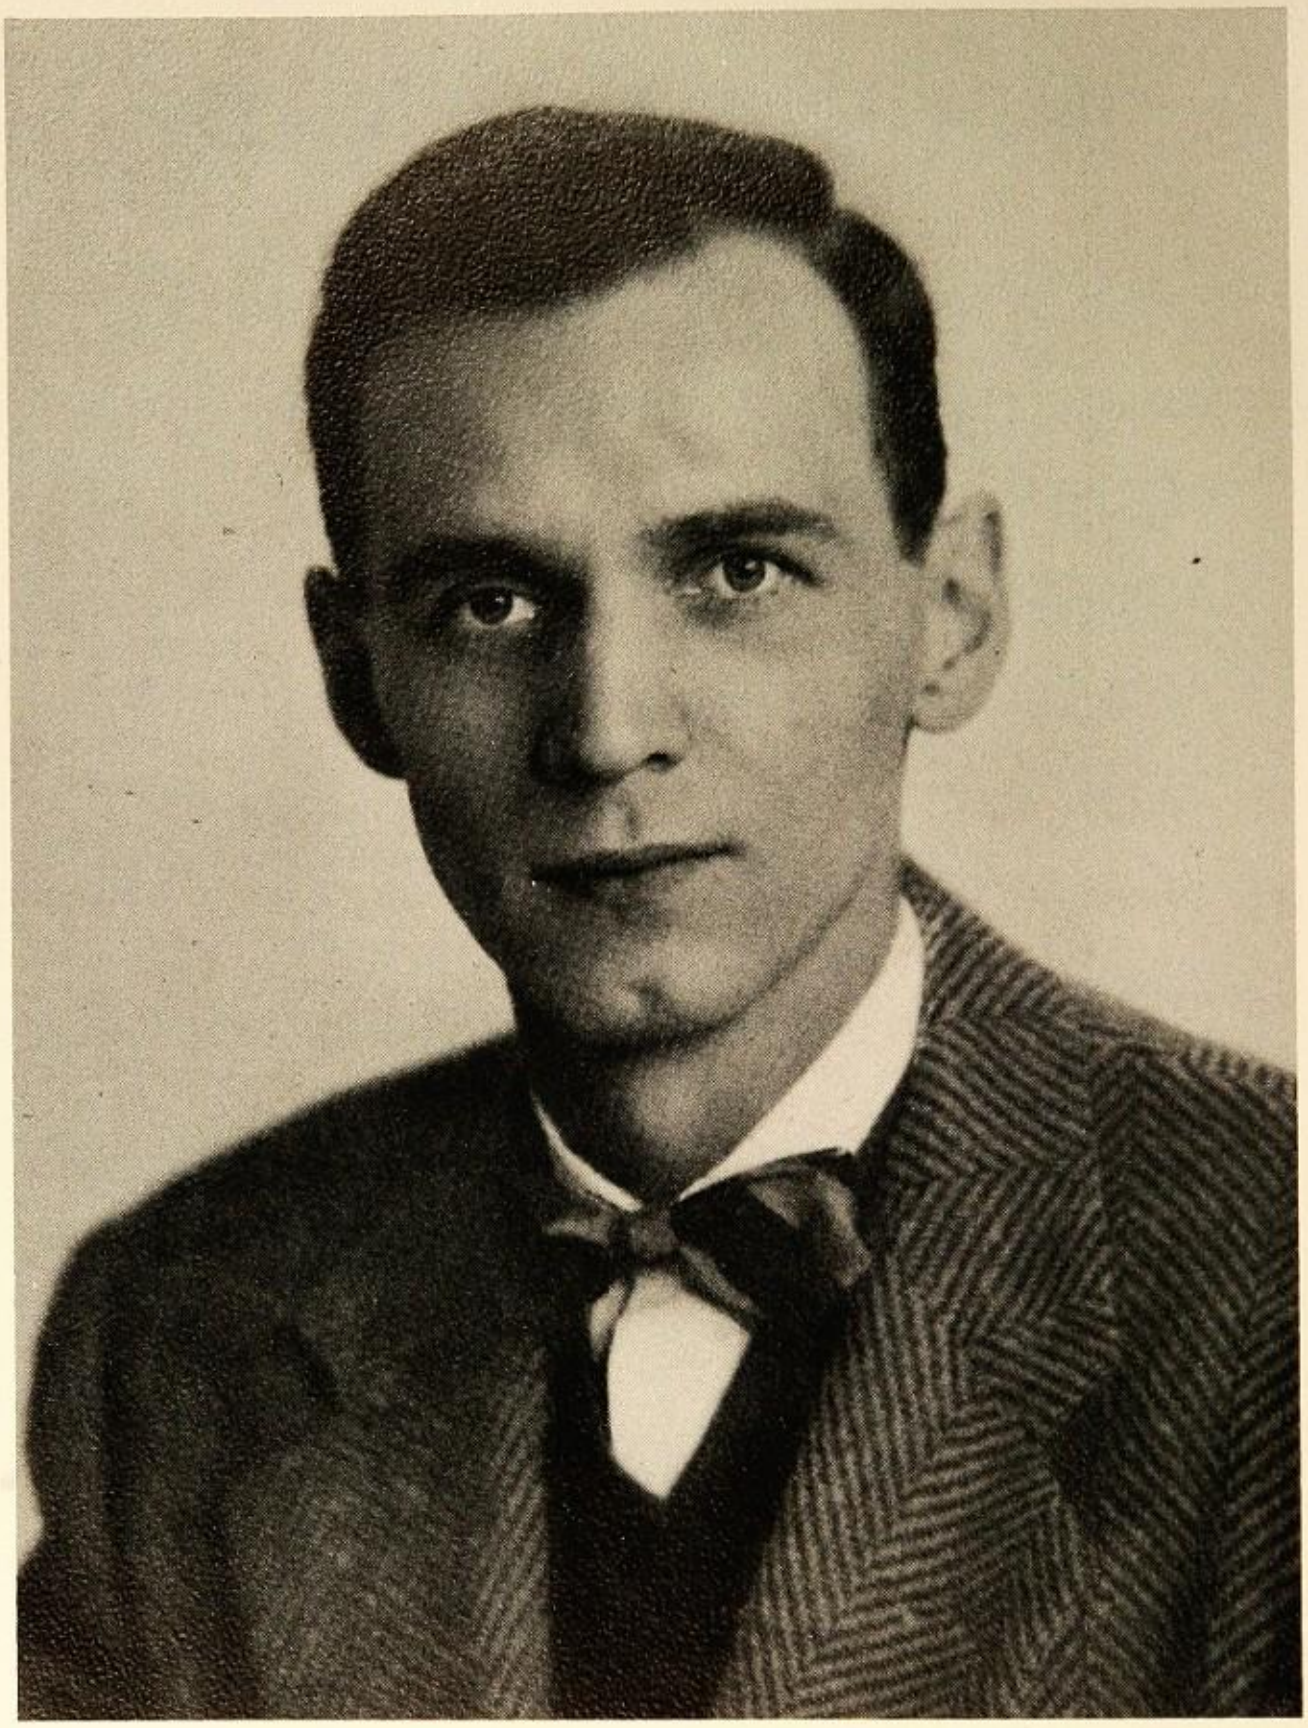
DEDICATION

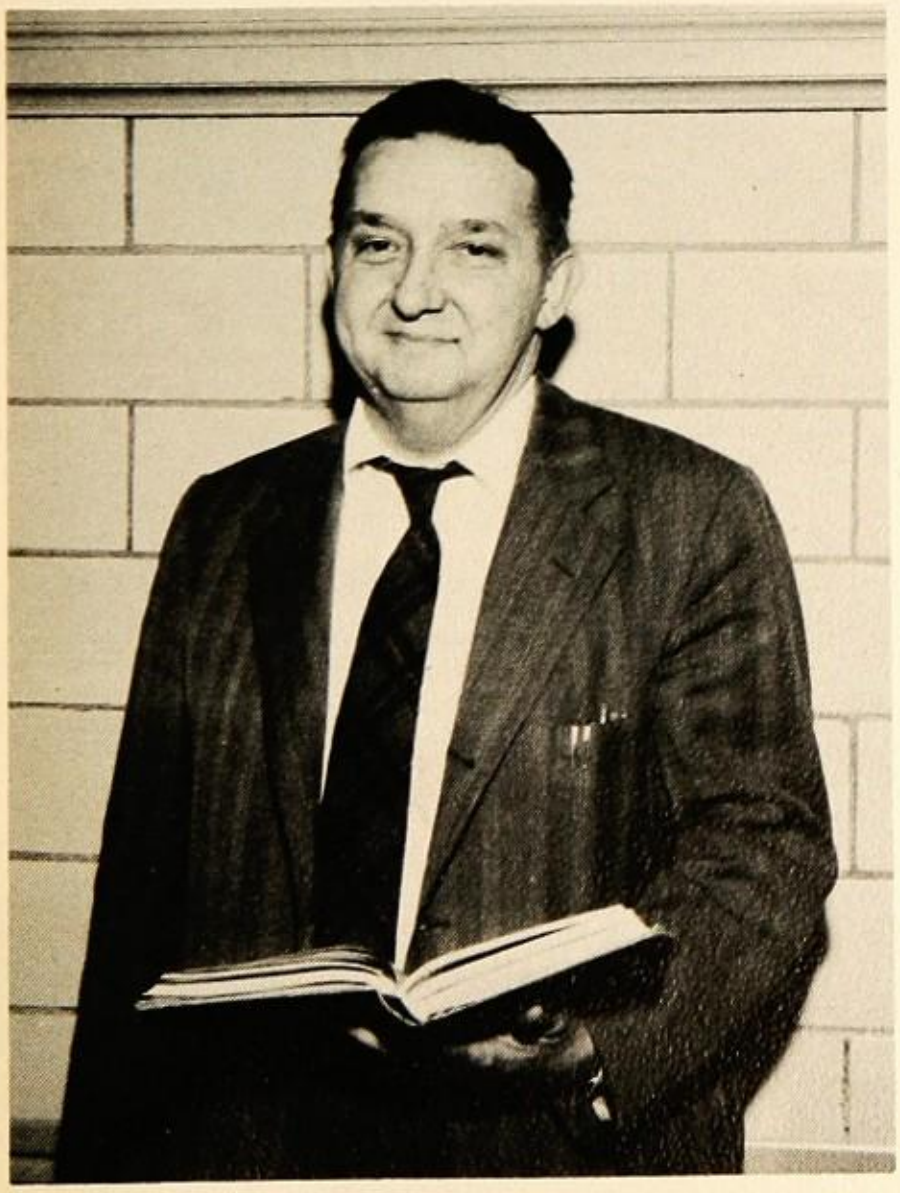


We, the Senior class of 1958 dedicate to you MR. GOODROW, the symbol of our efforts, the 1958 CHRONICLE. Undaunted, and untiring, you have helped us master the most trying period of our young lives. You have been to most of us more than a class advisor; you have been a counsellor, a teacher, a support, and a friend. No problem was too personal or too difficult to bring to you, and never were we turned aside without some answer. The happy moments in our lives were the happy ones in your's and likewise you shared our deepest sorrows. For these reasons we thank you as individuals. You have also guided us as a class and we have grown into a strong, working unit under your watchful eyes. For this we thank you as a class and dedicate to you, that which we hold dearest to our hearts, The CHRONICLE.

APPRECIATION

MR. BRYAN:

To you, Mr. Bryan, we extend our appreciation for the guidance you gave us in our formative years at Southington High School. It was with sorrowing hearts that we saw you leave us at the end of our Freshman year, and we very joyfully accepted your help in the challenging programs of the following years. Feelings of thanks such as ours should not be hidden and so at this eventful moment in our lives, we extend these feelings to you in printed form.



MR. JOYAL:

In extending our appreciation to you, Mr. Joyal, we would like to feel that we are speaking not only for our class, but the many other classes you have helped in the past. It has been through your sincere efforts that we, like our predecessors, have been able to secure for the years to come, our memories within the covers of this, our 1958 CHRONICLE. It may have seemed at times that your efforts were to no avail but we realize that in putting our thanks into words we are acknowledging the many successes of the past as well as our own. It is with these thoughts that we give to you our heartfelt thanks.

To you with bright and shiny hair,
We leave this brush, use it with care

ZOUFALY, JACQUELINE
In using the Page-boy style you do excell
These curlers to keep your hair looking swell

CLASS POEM

As the radiant sun
Pours out its warmth
Upon the tiny seeds of youth,
Delicate shoots
Burst from the earth,
Into the brilliance of life.
Then, nourished
By the rains of truth,
Wisdom, love, and hope,
They grow.

Slowly
The tiny petals
Of flowers are formed.
Then quickly
They burst into bloom.
Exposing the innocent hearts of youth.
Dangerously,
Swaying to and fro
On the slenderest of stalks.
These beauties.
At the height
Of perfection and strength,
Go forth undaunted and unafraid
Into the trails of survival.

The winds,
So fierce and strong,
Seek to tear these gems
From the very threshold of maturity.
Suddenly
Clouds cut off
The protective rays of the sun,
And these,
The young ones of yesterday,
Grow up,
And take their place
In the garden of adulthood.

So we,
The newest arrivals
In the ranks of maturity,
Stand ready
To face and conquer
The storms and adversities of life.

Ann Hodgkins

CLASS

Mr. Adams:
To you, Mr. Adams, a whiz with keys,
We leave you a hand rest, we hope you are pleased.

Mr. Badrigian:
For our leader with the baton,
We leave a stool to stand upon.

Miss Barry:
To you, Miss Barry, so petite and bright,
We leave a French guide, but don't take flight.

Mrs. Berlani:
In Science you have taught so well,
We leave to you this little bell.

Mrs. Brackley:
In "gym" so well you have led us all,
To you we leave a tennis ball.

Mrs. Churchill:
You and Sir Winston, name's the same,
So, to you, we leave his great fame.

Mr. Costanzo:
Because in music you've been so swell,
We leave you this wand to help weave the spell.

Mrs. Curley:
In sewing you've taught us to be wizards,
We leave, to you, this pair of scissors.

Mrs. Day:
To you, Mrs. Day, so fresh in white,
We leave excuse pads to help your plight.

Mr. DeFabo:
Latin is the language you do speak,
Now read this paper written in Greek.

Mr. Dexter:
In Southington High School you are new,
So we leave you a map to guide you through.

Mrs. Farmer:
Because Math and English you do teach,
We leave you a book on numbers and speech.

Mr. Farmer:
Because you are so hard to fool,
We leave to you this milking stool.

Mrs. Ferrucci:
In Algebra you are such a whiz,
We leave, to you, this difficult quiz.

Mrs. Fontana:
A shorthand pad we leave to thee,
Mrs. Fontana, take some notes for me.

Mr. Fontana:
As Director of Athletics you've led us well,
We leave you these hints to help you sell.

Mr. Gasecki:
With student drivers you have gone far,
We give to you a little sports car.

Mr. Goodrow:
To you, Mr. Goodrow, so true to our class,
We can leave but memories, Alas! Alas!

Mrs. Haeschi:
To you, Mrs. Haeschi, a teacher of Science,
We leave this balance, depend on its reliance.

Mrs. Hall:
To you, Mrs. Hall, so full of glee,
We leave a book for all to see.

Mrs. Hallett:
In sewing and cooking you do swell,
We leave this receipe, use it well.

Miss Jennings:
To you Miss Jennings, a food lover indeed,
We leave a diet book which you may never need.

Mr. Joyal:
To you, Mr. Joyal, we leave these maps,
To take you away from our mishaps.

Mr. Kloss:
To Mr. Kloss, a teacher of History,
We leave this book full of mystery.

Mr. Lozoski:
Because your coaching excells each year,
We give you a Southington High School cheer.

WILL

Mr. McSorley:
Because you keep the tools so neat,
Here's a stool to rest your feet.

Mr. Mitchell:
Because in our "Phys Ed" class you did "sub",
To help with the boys here's a club.

Mr. Mucci:
Because you make up some wicked tests,
We leave you this warrent for your arrest.

Mrs. Murphy:
To you, Mrs. Murphy, so faithful and true,
We leave our banner of white and blue.

Mr. Nolan:
To teach Junior English must be hard,
So to you we leave this "Silence" card.

Mrs. O'Conner:
To one so handy with pots and pans,
We leave this lotion to prevent dishpan hands.

Mr. Orsene:
Since assistant coaching is a "racket",
We leave to you a side-line jacket.

Miss Pickett:
In typing speed you do exceed,
Here's a ribbon to meet the need.

Mr. Pirro:
Because S.H.S. is new to you,
We leave you a door plaque that's very new too.

Mrs. Prevost:
To you, Mrs. Prevost, an expert on games,
We leave some alcohol to use when your lame.

Miss Rammondetta:
We leave you this pencil to correct your tests,
And to tell you, "We Seniors tried our best!"

Mrs. Rathbun:
To you, Mrs. Rathbun, so good with nouns,
A book of slang, but don't ever let down.

Mr. Rathbun:
Since in your class we did stencil,
We leave, to you, this drawing pencil.

Miss Shorey:
Since you like the out of doors,
We leave, to you, a pair of oars.

Mr. Terek:
Because the History you teach is old,
Here, for a change, is some that's fresh and bold.

Mrs. Viselle:
Because in business technique you excell,
We leave you a pen and an ink well.

Miss Wilmes:
To you, Miss Wilmes, so patient and kind,
We leave this piano, hope you don't mind.

Administration:
Because your job is not a "breeze",
We leave you aspirins, your headaches to ease.

Office Staff:
For the many times you must hurry and scurry,
A pair of skates, now you won't have to worry.

Class of '59:
An easy chair to help you relax.

Class of '60:
Our deepest sympathy to the candy salesman.

Class of '61:
On single session you may go, but remember take it slow.

Class of '62:
Some pillows to help you over the rough spots.

Southington High School:
Our alma-mater, so staunch and true,
To leave you at all, makes us feel blue.

THE LAMPLIGHTER

Volume I — Class Diary — June, 1958

GENIUSES AT HIGH SCHOOL

September 1954 brought a new class to Southington High School. Henceforth these beautiful and handsome geniuses shall be known as many things, but to us, as The Class of '58.

ELECTIONS

The Class of '58 held its first high school election. Results are as follows: Gene Manware, President; Peter Brooks, Vice-President; Louise Cano, Secretary; and George Mongillo, Treasurer. Mr. Bryan was chosen advisor.

MAGAZINES FOR SALE

"No Ma'am, I'm not working my way through college; just high school." "Curly" Davis of Curtis Publications found that the Freshman need a little more practice. We came in fifth in the annual magazine drive. The fifty dollars, however, did help the class treasury.

GIRL REPORTER

Ann Hodgkins joined the staff of the Emblem to write the Freshman Notes.

CUPID IS HERE!

Elaine Pichette and Fran Tully were voted pages at the Valentine Dance.

SQUARE DANCE HELD FOR WORTHY CAUSE

Our first undertaking to raise money was a square dance. Those were the good old days when "Pop" Smith was so popular.

CHEERLEADERS CHOSEN

The girls that did a great job in sparking the team on to victory were: Pat Tarantino, Pat Petrillo, Judy Meccariello, Louise Cano, Janice Santo, Audrey Varjas, Mary Carrubba and Judy Potter.

NEWCOMERS IN SPORTS

This year saw many promising players in baseball, basketball and track. The football team had a good year winning four and losing one.

WELCOME SUMMER

Spring is over; joy reigns, finals are finished; summer is here. The Class of '58, having survied its greatest test, now begins a well earned summer holiday.

THE PEOPLE'S CHOICE

September arrived and back to school went the Class of '58, now Sophomores. Promptly they elected their officers. Gene Manware emerged again as President, Diane Scott as Vice-President, Louise Cano again as Secretary and Betty Tacinelli as Treasurer. Mr. Goodrow is now our new advisor.

REPRESENTATIVE GOVERNMENT

The Sophomore delegation to the Student Council consists of: Linda Ludeck, Nancy Gale, Richard Snow, and Nancy White.

TALENT DISCOVERED

Three members of the Class of '58 were adopted by Miss Beach's Minstrels. These are Diane Scott, Don Pierce, and Richard Snow. The talent of three people, however, is not enough to support a variety show. We found this out by failing to put on the annual Sophomore Spotlight Review.

NEW NEWS REPORTER

Claire Cupka has the delightful job of reporting class news to the school magazine; poor kid. We're proud to announce that Ann Hodgkins is now an assistant editor.

FLOOD DISASTER

Among the many tragedies caused by the flood, the cancellation of our square dance, "The Pumkin Hop," was of little signifigance. Nevertheless, it was a big disappointment to those who planned to attend on October 21st.

CURLY COMES AGAIN

The Sophomores went out with high hopes of increasing their sales power but ended up in fourth place. Even seventy-five dollars helps the class treasury.

ATHLETES AT S. H. S.

Our boys turned out in full force to support the blue and white. We were well represented in football, basketball, track and baseball.

WHY WE LIKE SPRING

We like spring because summer comes soon after bringing vacation. At last you're here O long awaited vacation. Certainly we are happy, but remember, there's an even bigger treat in store this coming September.

SEPTEMBER, 1956

Oops, almost didn't make it did we? But finally we can consider ourselves upper-classmen. The following were picked to guide us through our third year: President, Patricia Petrillo; Vice-President, Janice Maiorano; Secretary, Louise Cano; Treasurer, David Upson. Mr. Goodrow proved himself a capable advisor in our Sophomore year and was unanimously chosen again.

INCREASE IN REPRESENTATIVES

Today I passed a room full of ambitious looking young men and women who were, as I discovered later, our new Student Council. Junior representatives are; Pat Boas, Penny Tracy, Nancy Gale, Pat Palmieri and Pat McCullough.

INDUSTRIOUS REPORTERS

MUSIC IN THE AIR

We are proud to say that more students were chosen for the Minstrels under the direction of Mr. Blake. They are Claudia Judd, Annabell Guay, Roberta Moulton, Tom Goodemote and John Guerin. Of course Diane Scott, Richard Snow anw Don Pierce are old hands at "minstreling" now. This is their second year.

SOCIETY FLASH

Patricia McCullough and Mark Carbone were voted pages at the Valentine Dance.

RAH-RAH GIRLS

Our peppy contribution was added to the cheerleading squad when Audrey Varjas, Pat Tarantino, Nancy White, Louise Cano and Rosemary Pepi were chosen to help lead the team on to victory.

FATTENING BUT GOOD

"Ohh! I'm so hungry!," was the most popular quotation at recess time .We came to the rescue though, by candy at recess and between sessions. We thank Pete Brooks, Penny Tracy, Peggy Pepi, Betty Tacinelli, Dave Upson, Janice Maiorano, Priscilla Baldini, Jim McNicholas, Lenard Orzech and Pat Petrillo, candy vendors, who made the affair quite a profitable success.

HEADLINES

Nancy Gale, Madge Verderame, Gene Manware, John DeMarco and Ken Gorr were chosen to represent S.H.S. at Girl's State and Boy's State held on the campus of Connecticut University.

ANNUAL TREAT

Today at a special assembly, six of our classmates spoke in the annual Junior Recital. Louise Cano, Peggy Pepi, Diane Scott, George Orr, Anthony Cannatelli and Donald Pierce. Diane and George were picked winners.

COMMITTEES

The Class Ring Committee consisted of Madge Verderame (chairman) Anthony Salerno, Carol Orrill, Lenard Orzech, Dolores Carlo and Diane Scott. The whole class participated on another committee which was responsible for organizing our dance, "Fall Frolic," held in October.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The Southington Chapter of the National Honor Society, under the direction of Mrs. Churchill, had a special meeting today. In a very impressive cermony fifteen Juniors were admitted to the society. These Juniors were; Judy Meccariello, Patricia Petrillo, Brenda Middleton, Ann Hodgkins, Diane Scott, Nancy White, Madge Verderame, John DeMarco, George Orr, Eugene Manware, Marshall Atwater, Lenard Orzech, Claire Cupka, Pat Palmieri and Carol Orrill.

FANTASY IN FROST

The theme for our Junior Prom was "Fantasy in Frost." Although the prom was scheduled to be held on December 15th, it was postponed to December 17th because of an ice storm. Ann Hodgkins and Alan Stevens were crowned king and queen. It was quite a success under the leadership of the two co-chairmen Madge Verderame and Gene Manware.

RETURN OF "CURLY"

We Juniors definitly are not good salesmen. We came in forth again in the annual Magazine Drive adding Seventy-five dollars to our treasury. We had lots of fun doing it though.

TALENT???

Another disappointment was added to the Class of '58 when we were unable to hold the annual Junior Minstrel.

BULLETIN

We'll never forget the Bomb scares. To everyone's delight school was called off for one day. Fortunately the scares were only pranks and no damage was caused.

SPORTS

Again the Class of '58 presented many talented boys to the sports field. We were quite active in Football, Baseball, Basketball, and Track.

FAREWELL SENIORS

We saluted the Class of '57 by giving them a Senior Farewell Dance in June.

VACATION

Summer, Summer, you've finally come. But is it as good as it sounds? Most of us are of working age now so our only time for summer fun is after work and weekends.

HONORED SENIORS

Our last year; the time just flew. Well I hope you all were able to do at least a bit of relaxing these past few months because there's long, hard year ahead. The people leading the "busy beavers" of the class of '58 will be: President, Pat Petrillo; Vice-President, Gene Manware; Secretary, Louise Cano and Treasurer, Dave Upson.

MR. GOODROW ADIVSOR AGAIN

With so much to do this important year we are all grateful to have Mr. Goodrow advising and helping us once again.

PROMOTIONS

Since we are now Seniors, we receive editing responsibility of the Emblem. Here are the Seniors on the Emblem staff headed by Ann Hodgkins, editor; Marshall Atwater, Claire Cupka, John De Marco, Ken Gorr, Mary Knap, Janice Maiorano, Rosemary Pepi, Diane Scott, Richard Snow, Betty Tacinelli, Penny Tracy, and Carol Orrill.

Let's not forget our other imformation center, The Crusader. Madge Verderame is our well qualified editor, working along with these members of our class: Priscilla Baldini, Louise Cano, George Orr, Peggy Pepi, Rosemary Pepi, Anthony Salerno, Pat Tarrantino, Audrey Varjas and Nancy White.

NEW ADDITION

We Seniors are happy to see our much needed auditorium and class rooms becoming a reality. Conditions are rather hectic because of the construction but it is well worth it. We only feel sympathetic bceause we are leaving before we can take advantage of the new improvements.

FRESHMAN WELCOME? DANCE

Now we really feel important after seeing how many loyal subjects we have. We tryed to make the new arrival feel at home. It was loads of fun (for us at least) and the Freshman showed good humor and sportsmanship.

STOP THE MUSIC

Stop the music? Let's try not to. We need more support from all sides for our music department. Southington was represented in Connecticut's greatest high school musical event, All State, by Claudia Judd, Diane Scott and Tom Goodemote.

MINSTRELS

New noted additions to the Minstrels are Richard Kiefer, George Kitchen, Harry Bernier, Madge Verderame and Gisela Witz.

CHRONICLE

Madge Verderame and Marshall Atwater are responsible for getting the year book out on schedule. They found a willing and able crew waiting to help them.

RECORD DANCES

The trend in entertainment seems to be the record hop. Our class goes right along with the crowd by holding the "Pumpkin Hop" which was a great success.

TO SPARK THE TEAM

To cheer for "Saturday's hero" we have our pretty, peppy cheerleaders: co-captains Rosemary Pepi and Pat Tarantino, Louise Cano, Pat McCullough and Nancy White.

LEADERS IN STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Student Council is now an impressive part of S. H. S. thanks to the support of its president Nancy Gale and its other Senior members: Mary Knap, Pat McCullough, Pat Palmieri, Diane Scott and Penny Tracy.

SENIORS INVADE TOWN

A better understanding of Southington was gained by a selected group of students as they assumed the positions of the town office for a day. Every graduating class looks forward to Youth Honor Day.

G. A. A.

Carrying on the work of Miss Carroll, Mrs. Brackley has an extensive girls atheletic program. All of us are proud to have Mary Knap as president of the Girls' Atheletic Association.

POPULARITY CONTEST

Anxious inquiries from curious '58'ers: "who will be most likely, best dressed, best looking?" The class poll was announced. A salute to many deserving Seniors.

CHRISTMAS BALL

Famous for breaking tradition, we now hope we've started one. This "dressy" dance was the perfect way to start off the festive holiday season. The ball was held on December 21st.

SPORTS ITEMS

The classs of '58 gave a good showing in all sports areas during their Senior year. Congratulations to all the boys who turned out and also to their leaders; basketball co-captains Gary Nagel and Bill Schumann; cross country co-captains Mike DellaVecchia and John Guerin; baseball co-captains Fran Tully and Ed Kaftan and especially our football co-captains Pete Brooks and Ronny Romano who brought our football team through an undefeated season.

NOTES AND QUOTES

Evidence of practically all types of talent — artistic, literary and scholastic — appear in our class.

The Homemaker of Tomorrow is Mary Knap. Pat Petrillo is this years D. A. R. winner. Diane Scott has kept the town informed or activities at S. H. S. through her column in the Southington news and Hartford Current. Janice Maiorano will someday be a leading figure in the business world. She is doing a fine job as president of the Senior Secretarial Club. Nancy White makes the news by becoming president of the first Future Nurses Club at Southington High.

Coming in the midst of all these events is the announcement of the twelve Seniors who have ranked as the top twelve of our class. They are: Carol Orrill, Leonard Orzech, Nancy White, Marshall Atwater, Madeline Verderame, John DeMarco, Diane Scott, Gary Nagel, Eugene Manware, Brenda Middleton, Madeleine Zosh and Patricia Palmieri. Those who received honorable mention but were not eligible for position in the top twelve because they had not been here the required amount of time were Gisela Witz and Richard Woods. Congratulations to all of you.

ANNUAL SENIOR EVENT

Our Valentine Dance, held on Feburary 15th, was a gala affair. A king and queen were chosen. The lucky couple turned out to be Ann Landrette and Joe LaPorte.

FINIS

Dear Readers,

The editors of the Lamplighter sincerely hope that you have enjoyed this synopsis of Four Year's Flashbacks.

CLASS PROPHECY

Here we are at the big testimonial given by the class of '58 in honor of the first woman president of the United States. Gazing around the room we see so many familiar faces. Let's walk around and reminisce with some of our old classmates who were flown in on a big TWA Constellation piloted by Ronnie DeJohn and Charles Darling with their three charming stewardesses Priscilla Baldini, Carol Brown and Nancy Clark. Feeling at ease on the plane were our famous world travelers Bill Boyle, Dolores Carlo, Tony Salerno and Carolyn McCarthy.

As we enter into the main dining room of Convention Hall we see the magnificent floral display and table arrangements designed by the homemakers of our class, Pat Palmieri, Lorraine Sirois, Judy Potter, Barbara Cowles, Kathy DeSorbo, Pat Boas, Rita Cyr, Henrietta Wielgos and Janet Sweeney.

At one table we see our classmates who have chosen teaching as their profession. Among them are: Pat Tarantino, an English teacher at Southington, Elliot Woolwich, a history professor at New Britain Teachers College, Claire Cupka, a professor of sociology at the University of Connecticut, Nancy Gale, a home economic teacher at Meriden High, Ann Hodgkins, a French teacher at the University of Miami and Leonard Orzech, a professor of psychology at Yale. They have certainly helped the young people of America find their place in the world.

At another table we find some of the heros and heroines of the sports world. Arguing over which team is best we find Ronnie Romano, head coach of the Ipana Football team, Pete Brooks, head coach of the Gleem Football team and Larry Orsini, head coach of the Football team at Colgate. Listening attentively are Bobbi Moulton, the girl track star of the Olympics and Toni Felon, our Basketball Champ. Good Luck to you all!

What's this! Someone talking a blue streak? That could only be Louise Cano and Gerry D'Angelo having a heated political discussion. Also at their table we see some of our famous chemical and civil engineers — George Clements, Tom Farr, John Guerin, Richard Mongillo, George Shipman and Elwin Norton. You're doing a fine job fellows.

There seems to be a huddle in one part of the room — looks like our famous chemists, Carl Masthay, Gene Manware, Gisela Witz and Robert Zorn talking over a new wonder drug to cure the Russian Flu. When you find a cure let us know.

My, how stylish Claudia Basso looks! She's a famous fashion designer in New York. Talking to her about designing new nurses uniforms are our own disease fighters Joyce Alix, Cynthia Andrews, Marlene Fallon, Loretta Kuhr, Audrey Lyons, Jeanne Roy, Betty Tacinelli and the head nurse at the Mayo Clinic, Nancy White. Also seated with them is the outstanding woman surgeon, Dr. Mary Carrubba and the famous Physical Therapist, Judy Meccariello.

Now we see Madeline Verderame, editor of Life Magazine, Marshall Atwater, editor of the Southington Newspaper, The Daily Star, and Maryann Knap, editor of Good Housekeeping, looking over and praising the Chronicle of '58. We really ought to feel honored. Here come Audrey Varjas and Peggy Pepi, co-authors of the novel, "The Disappointing Years." Looks like they're going to voice their opinion on the yearbook too.

I guess we can all agree that the ladies look lovely with their charming new hair'dos. This was made possible with the assistance of the hairdressers in our class who are: Judy LeBeau, Denise Grenier, Joanne Ferrucci, Annabell Guay, Joy Hall, Madeline Zosh, Jackie Zoufaly, Charlotte Lapreay, Beverly Livermore and Joyce McKenzie. Their big bosses are Robert Rusczek and Donald Pierce co-owners of Bob and Don's Salon of Beauty.

It looks like a mechanics convention at this table. Bernard Perkins, Gary Nagel, Bill Schumann, Ray Brooks, Duane Kennedy, Jim Gagnon, George Kitchen, Bob Aldieri, Wayne DeJohn, Dave Barry and Fran Tully our master mechanics are discussing "car talk".

Ed Kaftan and Dick Kiefer, managers of the First National, John Kizilski and Pete Fazzone, managers of the Grand Union, and Ed Gladke and Roger Jones, managers of the A & P, are discussing new advertisements with our famous cartoonists Ken Gorr, Janice Maiorano and Richard Snow. Joining in their conversation are William Tedesco, head of a large Construction Company, and Walter Truss, his foreman. Walking over to their table are John DeMarco, Mike DellaVecchia, Don Dobratz, and Doug Yocher, chief stockholders in the Three D and Y Department Store.

Horseracing seems to be the topic of discussion at this table. Judy Curran, a well-known woman jockey, and Ed Tycz, another well-known jockey, are talking about the Kentucky Derby. They're also giving Rosemary Pepi some pointers on how to ride a horse. It seems that Wendy Terry, Pete Aduskevich, Don Barry, Harry Bernier, Bob Cerniglia, Larry Wenzloff, Dave Upson and Chet Uliasz, all owners of entered horses, are arguing over which horse is going to win. Carol Orrill, a noted pianist and Penny Tracy, a buyer for a New York Store are listening to their argument attentively.

We were just informed that the famous comedy team and stars of the show "People Are Crazy", Claudia Judd and George Mongillo are here to entertain us. Giving them a helping hand are the great Hollywood stars, Diane Scott, Ann Landrette, George Orr and Joe LaPorte.

The Grand March is now beging led by Mr. Philip Goodrow, our faithful class advisor, and followed by our protectors, Jack Ahearn, a captain in the Air Force, Lenny Dodge, an Admiral in the Navy, Layton Snow, a general in the Army, and Tom Goodemote, a Sergeant in the Marines. Following them is our Secretary of Defense, Louise Davey; Secretary to the Secretary of Defense, Pat Swol; Secretary of the Treasurey, Sandy Korhonen; Secretary to the Secretary of the Treasurey, Elaine Moss; Secretary of State, Eleanor Beacham; Secretary to the Secretary of State, Mary Ann Nigro; our Ambassador to France, Pat McCullough; Secretary of the Interior, Brenda Middleton; and Secretary to the Secretary of the Interior, Ann Mondello. Ambassador to Italy, Josephine DePaolo; and Ambassador to Spain, Carol Gagliordi. Our Mistress of Ceremony, Mary Ann Salerno; Our Vice-President, Joan Mottola; and finally our esteemed President and the first woman President of the United States, our own Patricia Petrillo!

Well, guess we've seen just about everybody. It's been loads of fun going around to find out how all of our classmates have progressed Most likely on Graduation Day most of us would never have dreamed we would be where we are today. So we leave you with these words . . . it's been fun — see you after the next election!

CLASS OFFICERS

During our Junior and Senior years, our class has been ably led by our class officers; Patricia Petrillo, President; Eugene Manaware, Vice-President; Louise Cano, Secretary; and David Upson, Treasurer.

We have had a great many problems as upperclassmen and our class officers have capably seen us through these difficulties.

Our thanks and sincere appreciation to Mr. Goodrow who has helped and guided us through the past four years.

CHRONICLE STAFF

The Senior Class Year Book, the "Chronicle," was published through the diligent and tireless work of a competent staff.

Begun early in May of the Junior year, contracts were signed with T. O'Toole & Sons, Inc., printers, and Loring Studios, official photographers.

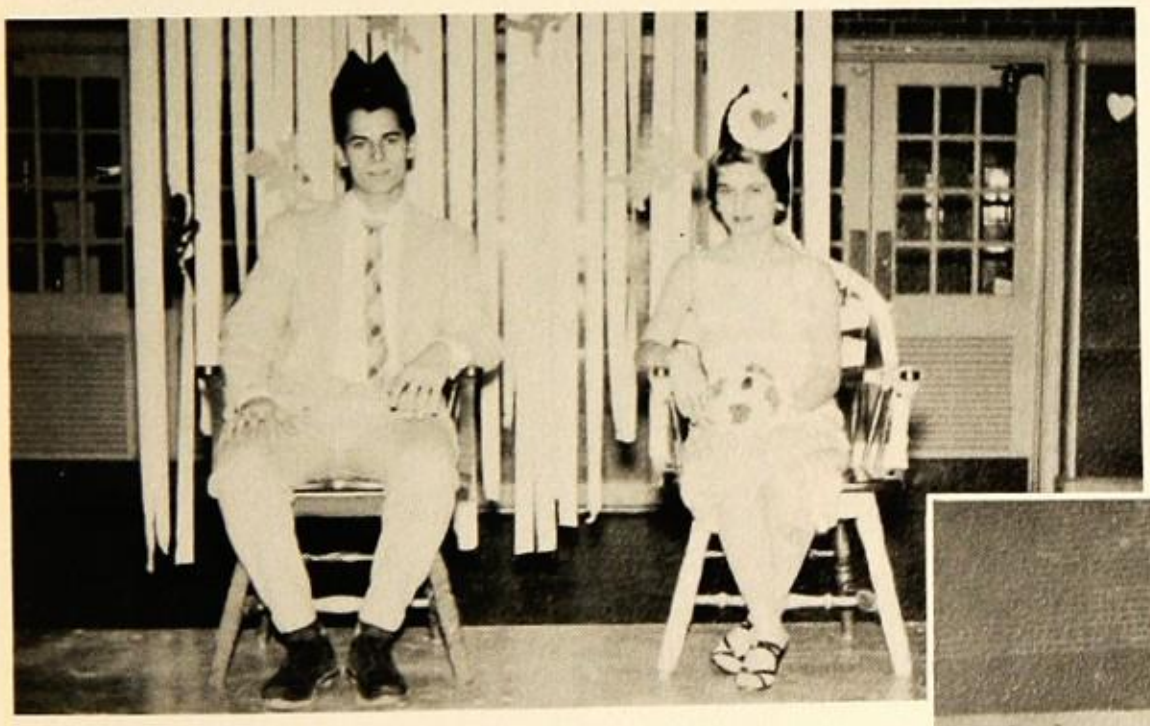
The "Chronicle" was put together page by page, problem by problem, until the final deadline, March 1st, was met. Without the supervision and advice of Mr. Raymond Joyal, to whom the Senior Class is indebted, our yearbook would not have been the best yet. The co-editors give their appreciation to everyone who helped toward the printing of the "Chronicle."

We will surely remember these events

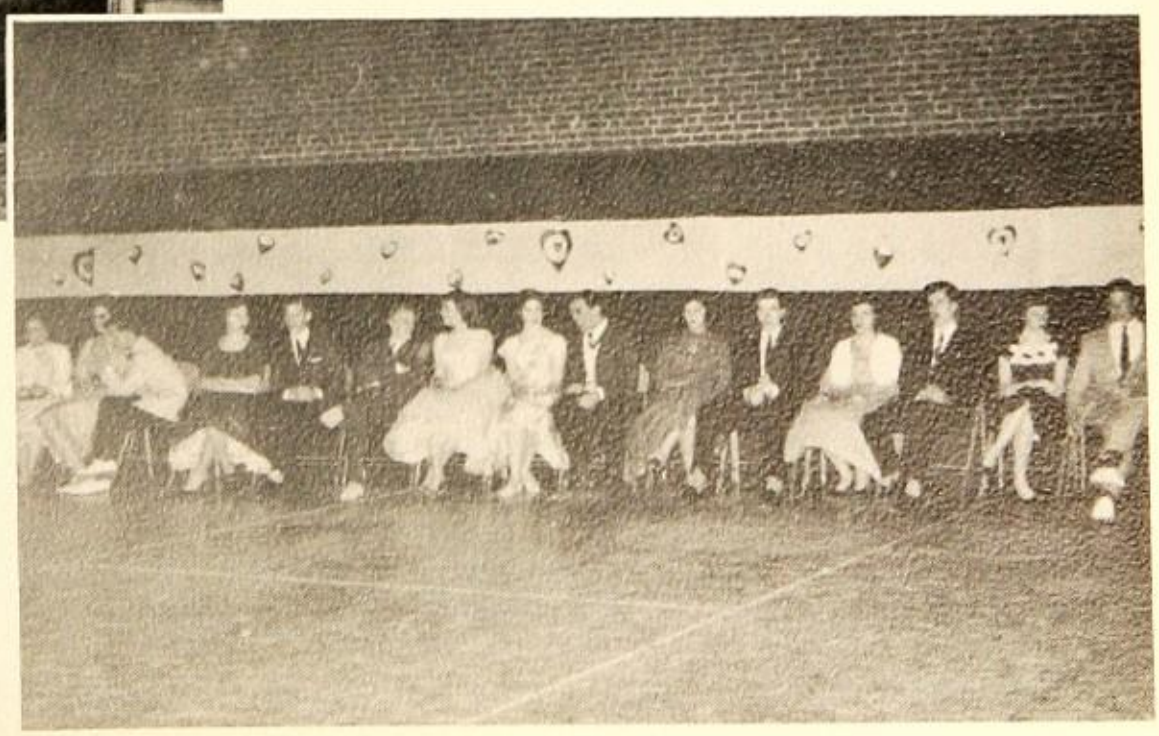
JUNIOR RECITAL

Near the beginning of each year, tryouts are held in all Junior English classes for the Junior Recital. The students selected appear before a group of teachers who narrow the list down to six. These students choose and prepare a monologue which is presented in an assembly. A group of local townspeople, serving as judges, select two winners. The lucky winners were, George Orr and Diane Scott.

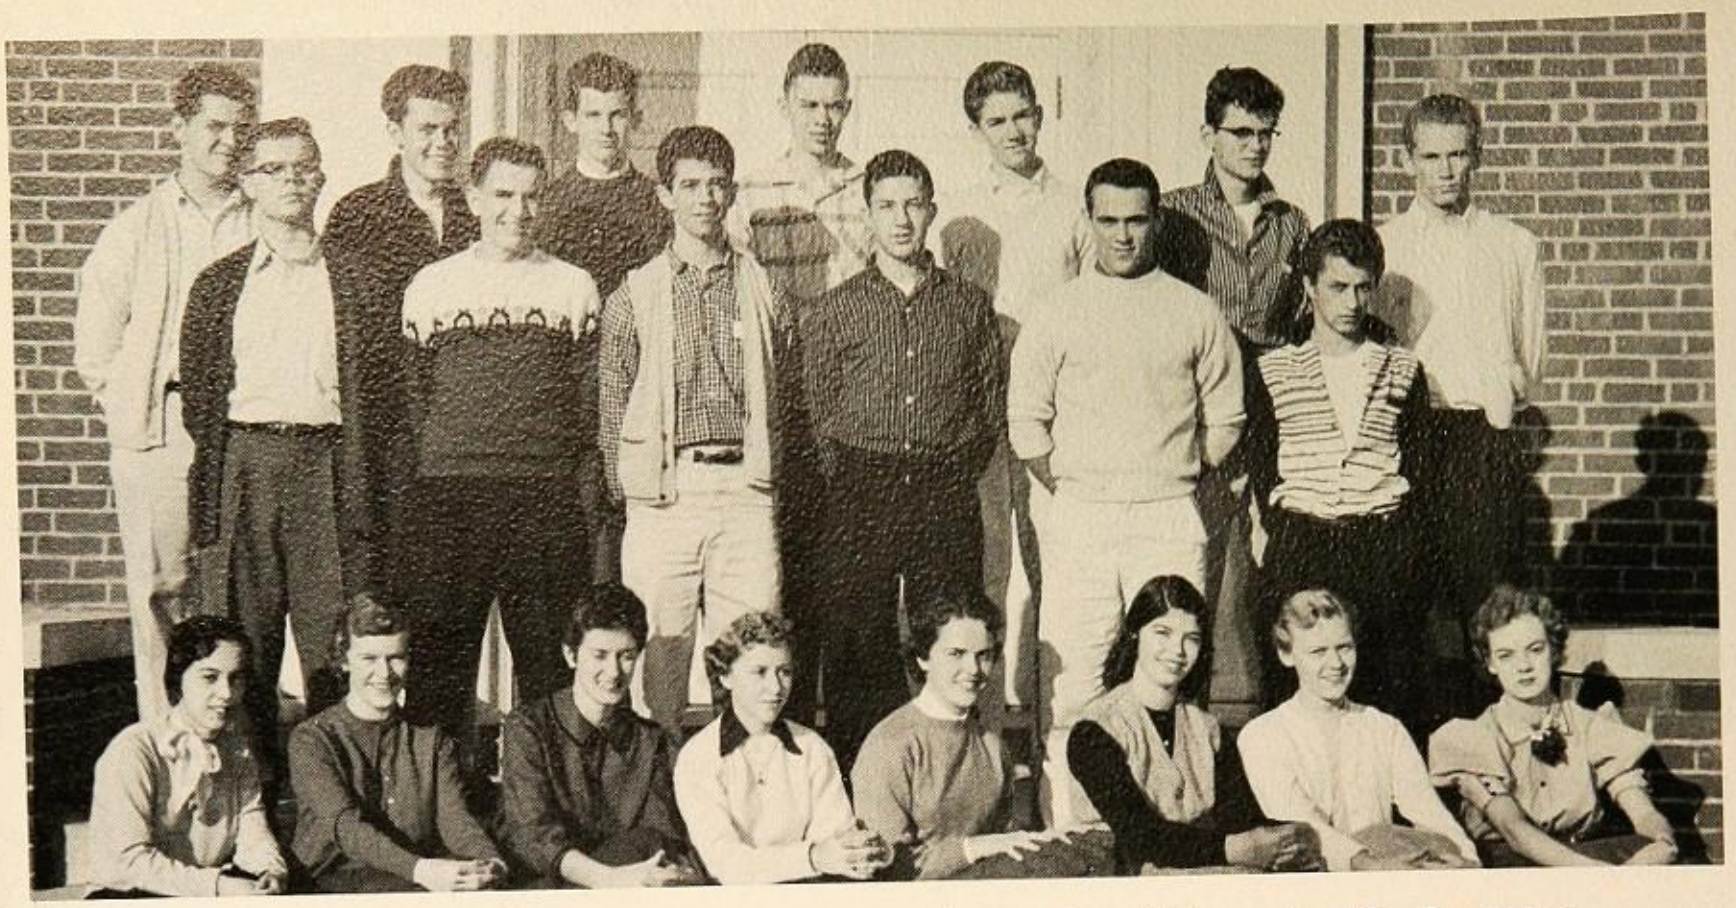
The 1957 participants were (left to right) 2nd row: Donald Pierce, George Orr; 1st row: Louise Cano, Diane Scott, Margaret Pepi. (Anthony Cannatelli, not pictured)



VALENTINE DANCE



YOUTH DAY



Each year the Student Council elects the students who will have the job of running the town for a day. The majority of students selected to fill the positions are Seniors. It is quite an honor to be selected to an office. Those who participated in Youth Day are (left to right) 3rd row: Ken Gorr, John Ahearn, Bill Schumann, Marshall Atwater, John Guerin, Ed Kaftan, Pete Fazzone. 2nd row: George Orr, Gene Manware, John DeMarco, Anthony Salerno, Peter Brooks, Mark Carbone. 1st row: Janice Maiorano, Claire Cupka, Penny Tracy, Pat McCullough, Diane Scott, Madge Verderame, Nancy Gale, Carol Orrill.

CHEERLEADERS

The cheerleaders are a group of Junior and Senior girls who support the football and basketball teams and lead the student body in cheers. Tryouts are held for Sophomore and Junior girls at the end of the Basketball season. A tryout is conducted before a group of out of town gym teachers and the co-captains who have one vote between them. The girls are scored on appearance, jump, voice and agility. Eliminations are determined at a meeting of the principal, athletic director and advisor who score on the following items: grades, attendance, character and score from the first rating. Co-captains are chosen after tryouts by the previous season's cheerleaders.

Our cheerleaders have always been an asset to the school and we hope they will continue to live up to the standards they have set.

Activities

EMBLEM

The Emblem, our school news-magazine, is noted for its excellent composition, art, and mimeographing. It appears four times a year and is supplemented by the Emblemette, which includes various information, between issues of the Emblem.

The Emblem has on its staff many capable and competent reporters who cover the news on society, sports, fashions, and various clubs. Literature, submitted by students, is also published in the Emblem. The editors and advisors supervise the Emblem and make certain that all runs smoothly.

The Emblem is a member of the Columbia and Connecticut Scholastic Press Association.

This year's editor was Ann Hodgkins. Assistant editors are William Thomasino and David Ballou. The advisors are Miss Shorey, Mrs. Fontana, Miss Ramondetta, and Mrs. Murphy.

CRUSADER

Printed at regular intervals, Southington High School's "Crusader" informs the students of the many activities of clubs, class news, gossip, sports, and contains interesting, controversial, and informing editorials about teen-age life and the student's world.

The Crusader was published under the leadership of editor, Madeline Verderame; assistant editor, Gail DeLuco; Advisor, Mr. Philip Goodrow; and a competent staff.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is an organization which represents the student body and works for the betterment of the school. The purpose of he Council include promoting school spirit and the best interests of the school and bringing the students and faculty into close harmony.

Some of the other objectives are to promote the magazine drive, publish the handbook, elect those students to represent the school on Youth Day, and also to choose a student of the week who is outstanding in some way.

This year the Council became a member of the National Association of Student Councils.

The Student Council was ably led by President, Nancy Gale; Vice President, Diane Scott; Secretary, Sheila Degnan; and Treasurer, David Ballou. The Student Council adviser is Mr. McSorley.

MINSTRELS

In order to become a member of the Minstrels, the individual must have the ability to sing well and show genuine interest in music.

During the year, the Minstrels perform at assemblies, and also in the Spring Concert. At Christmas time they sing for the various Southington schools.

In the fall four minstrels were chosen to represent Southington in the annual All-State Concert held in Hartford for two nights.

The Minstrel adviser is Miss Wilmes.

FUTURE NURSES OF AMERICA

Future Nurses of America is a newly formed club. It is composed of those girls who are interested in entering the nursing profession. Their objection is to learn more about nursing. The girls helped the Blood Mobile this year at the Bradley Memorial Hospital.

During the year, the club invites various speakers to inform the girls of the qualifications and requirements of various schools of nursing. They also take tours through different hospitals. This adds to their knowledge and experience and prepares them to be better nurses and students.

The girls chosen to lead the club through its first year are President, Nancy White; Vice President, Cynthia Andrews; Secretary, Barbara Boyce; and Treasurer, Carol Luty.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The Future Homemakers of America is composed of those girls who are interested in the field of home economics.

During the year, many activities are carried on. This year they had an Installation Service, Christmas party and other social gatherings.

This year's officers are President, Dorothy Kemp; Vice President, Vivian Emonds; Secretary, Joan Wydra; and Treasurer, Patty Pye. The adviser of the Future Homemakers is Mrs. Hallett.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The E. Mildred Bedford Chapter is a member of the National Future Teachers of America.

The club is designed to inform and create an interest in the teaching profession. The member receives the good points of teaching through discussions, movies, and guest speakers which are arranged at the monthly meetings. As a part of the program, the members are allowed to enter other Southington schools and practice teaching for a period of time under the guidance of an experienced person.

The student is thereby given a look at teaching and any information that might be of assistance in deciding upon the teaching career.

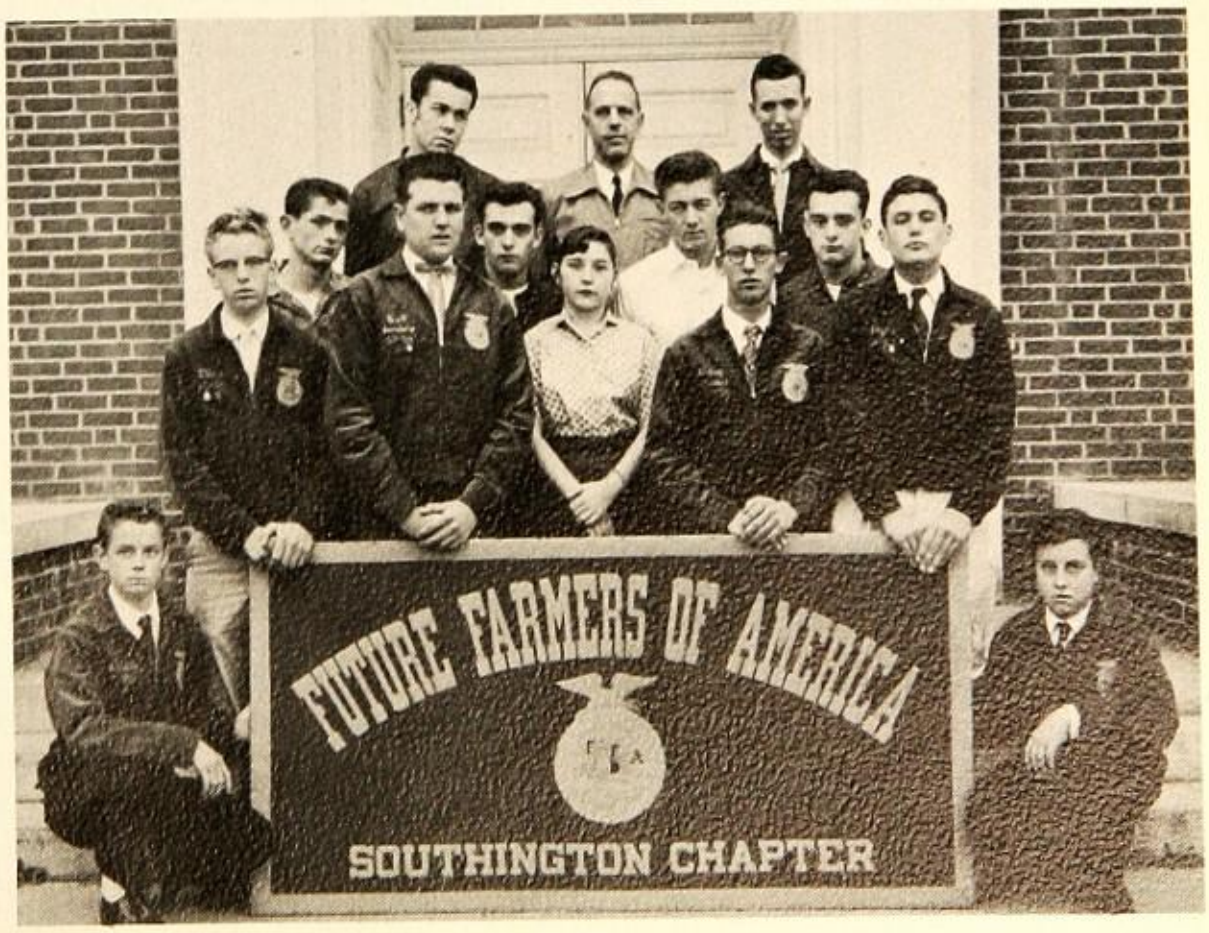
The students elected to lead this organization are President, Ann Hodgkins; Vice President, Patricia Tarantino; Secretary, Rosemary Pepi; and Treasurer, Diane Scott. The adviser is Mr. Raymond Joyal.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The Future Farmers is an organization of boys who are interested in agriculture.

At the beginning of the year the members attended the Springfield Fair. They also hold an annual Father and Son Banquet which was held at the First Baptist Church. The group works on community service projects during the year and gains valuable experience that will aid them in their chosen vocation.

This years officers are President, Douglas Yocher; Vice-president, Roger Tolles; Secretary, Duane Kennedy; and Treasurer, Ronald DeJohn. The adviser is Mr. Farmer.



SENIOR SECRETARIAL CLUB

The Senior Secretarial Club is comprised of those girls who are taking advanced shorthand and office practice, and who are interested in becoming future secretaries.

The main project of the club is the publication of the Emblem. During the year the girls take educational tours, co-operate with the magazine drive, and take a social and educational trip to New York in the Spring. The members also perform services for the school and community as often as possible.

This years officers are President, Janice Maiorano; Vice-president, Jacqueline Zoufaly; Secretary, Sandra Korhonen; and Treasurer, Henrietta Wielgos. The adviser of the Senior Secretarial Club is Mrs. Fontana.

DRAMATIC CLUB

The purpose of the Dramatic club is to develop poise and confidence in front of an audience. It also trains those persons interested to produce and direct a play. The members also acquire experience in applying make-up to the best advantage on stage.

This year, under the direction of Mrs. Viselle, the Dramatic Club produced a one-act comedy entitled "The Day After Christmas" in an assembly.

This year's officers are President, Carol Orrill; Vice-president, Richard Snow; Secretary, Rose Mary DeFeo; and Treasurer, Gail DeLuco. Mrs. Viselle was the adviser.

BAND

The band consists of those students interested in music. During the school year the band plays at football games, assemblies, and at the Spring Concert. Also, in the Spring, they have their Band Concert.

The band also supports the Southington Music Council in its drive to raise money each year.

These students have an abundance of school spirit and are a credit to our school.

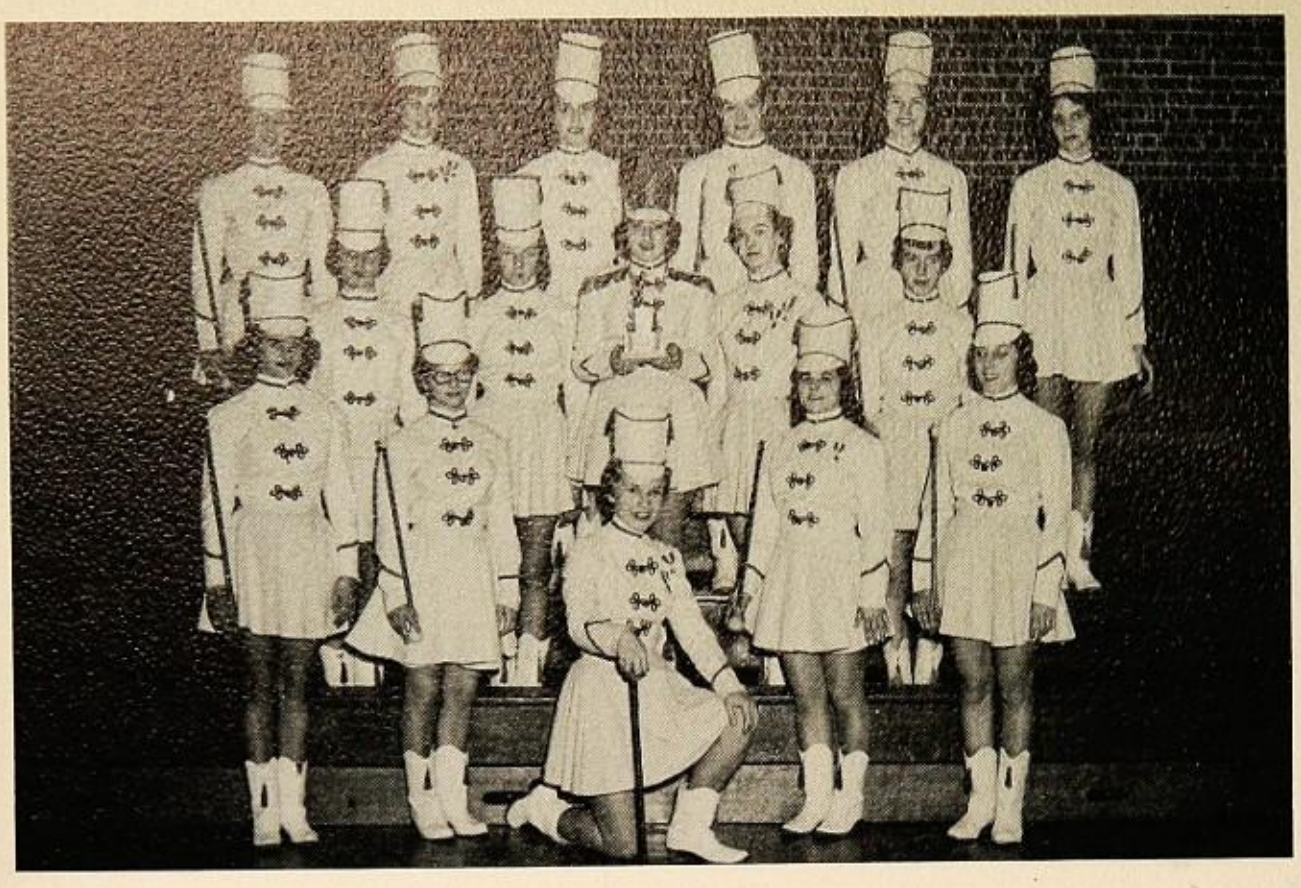
The band is under the direction of Mr. Badrigian.

ORCHESTRA

All students interested in music and with the ability to play a musical instrument may become a member of the orchestra.

Instruction on an instrument is given to those members who wish it.

The orchestra performs at the Spring Concert, at various schools at Christmas time, and for different local organizations during the year.



MAJORETTES

The majorettes gain co-ordination, poise, and confidence through precision drills and baton twirlling. The majorettes perform at football games and assemblies. They also march in several parades.

This year the girls participated in the Southington Music Council drive and received $50 which will go toward the purchase of new uniforms.

Last Spring the majorettes placed second in a regional competition held in Massachusetts. Several majorettes also won individual awards.

This year's leader is Elaine Moss and assistant leader is Sandra Korhonen. Miss Andrews is the adviser of the majorettes. The drills are taught by instructor Major Harvey.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society is an organization to which high schools throughout the country belong. Its main purpose is to promote interest in scholarship, leadership, and citizenship.

Members are chosen yearly from the Junior and Senior Classes. A student must have an average of 83 or better and be approved by the faculty and present members on the requirements of scholarship, character, leadership, and service. However, only 15% of each class may be elected in two years. The students accepted are then announced at an assembly.

The members-elect are then admitted to a formal, solemn, and impressive ceremony at which the family, friends, and faculty are invited.

At graduation, the society presents two prizes which are financed through dues, and the annual sale of bookcovers and note paper.

This years officers are President, Marshall Atwater; Vice-president, Madge Verderame; Secretary, Patricia Petrillo; and Treasurer, Diane Scott. The Honor Society adviser is Mrs. Churchill.

Football and Cross Country

The Blue Knights of Southington ran through an undefeated football season in a display of great team play, under the coaching of Walter Lozoski and Joseph Orsene. The Knights developed from a small green outfit to a Class B powerhouse, working hard every afternoon in preparation for their games. They brought honor to Southington High by coming out victorious week after week. In a season of let downs, due to cancellations, the boys kept their spirits up and battled as a unit to conquer their foes. They showed the true sportsmanship that was expected of them in every game, while keeping their championship form.

Southington was rated one of the top three Class B teams in the state, and was one of the two undefeated "B" teams. The conquering of Woodrow Wilson, Meriden, and arch-rival Plainville were victories of which the team and the school were most proud. The Knights did a great job and richly deserved all the honor bestowed upon them.

Cross Country was resumed once more at Southington High after a layoff due to lack of interest. A full schedule was planned but, due to cancellations and injuries, the boys had only two meets. Under the direction of Philip Goodrow, they trained every afternoon, working to condition themselves. Few candidates reported for tryouts, but the boys that did report represented Southington High in a fine manner.

BASKETBALL

The Blue Knights basketball team came back strong in the latter part of the season to produce a winning season. This late season surge enabled the Knights to gain a berth in the Class "B" tournament. No Southington High Basketball team has yet failed to qualify for the tournament. Under the direction of Walter Lozoski and Joseph Orsene the boys worked hard every night to overcome a slow start. They deserve credit for overcoming their lack of height and experience. It was an uphill battle all the way and required the boys to work together, playing as a team to overcome their opponents. It was a tough season with the boys competing representing Southington High in the best manner they could. They were good sports and played fairly even when the games weren't going as they wished. The Knights were certainly deserving of victory.

BASEBALL and TRACK

Southington High School once again captured the Central Valley "B" League championship, winning eighteen and losing only one game. The Knights entered the Class "B" tournament and emerged as runner up, being upset in the final game. It was a very successful season under the coaching of Joseph Fontana and Walter Lozoski, and the leadership of Anthony Angiletta and John Orsini. It was through an all out effort by the team that victories were produced, and not through the efforts of a single personality. They worked as a group from early March until the final game in June, which was lost to a spirited Farmington team.

All the games were played with sportsmanlike conduct despite the hard play. It was a typical Southington High School team, fighting for everything they could get and giving up very little. This hard and fair play made Southington well respected in the eyes of our foes, and made a victorious season that much more successful.

The track team, under the constant coaching and guidance of Joseph Orsene and Philip Goodrow, experienced the best season ever at Southington High. It went undefeated in eight meets, with the biggest victory being the defeat of Woodrow Wilson for the first time in nineteen years.

The Knights track team finished first in the Central Valley League and won the Connecticut State relays. It was the greatest season ever and was climaxed with the trouncing of Plainville. It took many hours of running and exercising to build the team into league leaders and the two coaches did a great job in getting the boys ready.

FRESHMAN SPORTS

Freshmen sports are mainly for the purpose of teaching boys the fundamentals of sports and of sportsmanship. Fairplay is installed in the minds of the boys who wish to participate in these outside activities. Freshmen sports are essential for the development of the skills of the boys who wish to participate in varsity sports. George Mitchell, the coach of the Freshmen teams, is faced with the job of developing the idea of team play to these future knights. He has had much success and led the Freshmen to another victorious season in football and basketball.

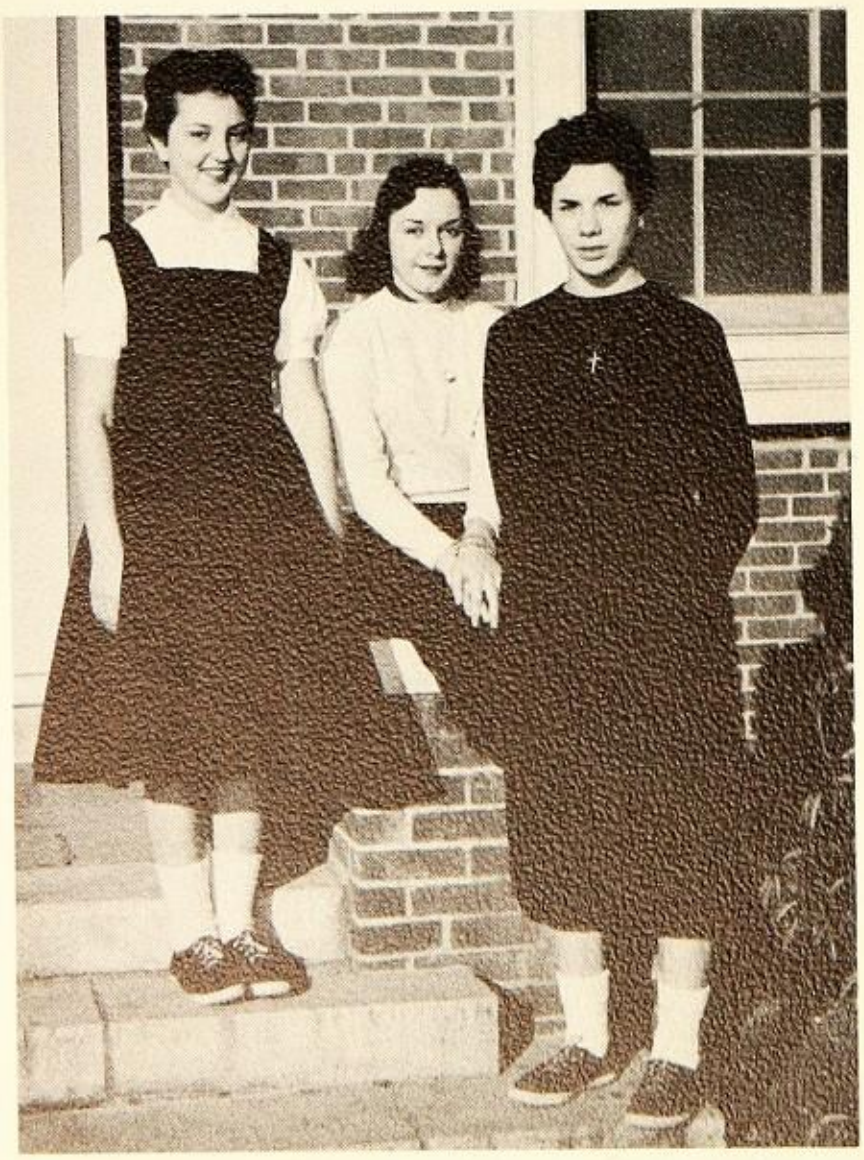
FIELD HOCKEY

The 1957 Honor Varsity Field Hockey Team, which met Thursday afternoons to play and practice, had a very successful season. Despite setbacks due to the flu, they were victorious in both their games. The girls scored a 3-0 win over Plainville and defeated North Haven 2-0. The Honor Varsity Field Hockey Team members received letters at the end of the season.



PEP CLUB

The Pep Club has been a very active organization this year. It is made up of students gathered to support the team. Pep rallies and assemblies are held to promote school spirit. This year the Pep Club sponsored dances to honor the players and presented them with awards. Another of their many activities was the production and sales of shakers and confetti. They were also responsible for the appearance of posters announcing the games and whenever possible they organized buses for the away games. We hope the Pep Club will continue their activities and strive toward their goal for more school spirit.

BASKETBALL

The Honor Varsity Girl's Basketball team had a full schedule this year. They attended a Basketball Clinic in Farmington along with 23 other teams from the Connecticut area. National Basketball officials led the program and farm players demonstrated skills. Six Southington girls played a short practice game against Simsbury. They were, Louise Davey, Claudia Judd, Loretta Kuhr, Roberta Moulton, Jackie Niles and Susan Prevost. Here they acquired a greater knowledge of basketball skills and learned the importance of sportsmanship. The Honor Team, which is coached by Mr. and Mrs. Brackley, participates in the Sports Day run by the G.A.A. and at the end of the year members receive basketball letters.

An intramural basketball program was held weekly on Thursday night. The girls who participated were divided into eight teams and an intramural program was set up. The basketball season was a success with the help of managers Penny Tracy, Carol Ursone, Barbars Stasilowitz, and June Bell.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Girls' Athletic Association is an organization which sponsors all girls' athletic programs. The officers are chosen in the spring by the G.A.A. members and the managers are chosen through their interest in sports. The purpose of this organization is to promote leadership, to provide wholesome recreation and to induce good sportsmanship. It sees to it that all girls who wish to participate in some sport may do so through the organization of intramural and inter-scholastic games. There is a variety of sports in which the girls can participate. These sports are, basketball, badminton, track and field, baseball, tennis and volleyball.

Each year the G.A.A. sponsors a sports day in which other schools participate and organizes the annual G.A.A. picnic. Mrs. Brackley organizes and advises the G.A.A. each year. The presence of the G.A.A. is an attribute to our school and it is hoped that it will continue throughout the years to help Southington girls develop their abilities and good sportsmanship.

BOWLING CLUB

The Girls' Bowling Club meets on Mondays and Wednesdays at the Southington Bowling Alley throughout the year. The club is divided into groups which bowl together all year. At the end of the year a tournament is held among the Southington girls. At this tournament the highest bowler for the year is given a Bowling Trophy and the top ten bowlers of the day are given awards. The Girls' Bowling Club is a relatively new activity but we are sure that it will continue because of its vast popularity.

Dear Father, God of all creation,
Hear our every plea.
Guide us o'er the stormy waters,
Of life's tossing sea.

We, the ones who seem so stalwart,
Come to Thee this day.
Lead us ever onward, upward;
Help us find truth's way.

Show to us, dear Heavenly Father,
What lies within our fate.
Then shelter with your wondrous love,
This class of '58.
